ORDER MODIFYING JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Jack C. Silver, Clerk
U. S. DISTRICT COURT

The Court has for consideration an application to reconsider the Court's Order dated May 24, 1973, denying modification of sentence in the above captioned cause of action.

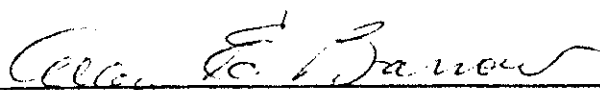

Upon review thereof and continued study and reflection of the proceedings herein, the Court finds that the defendant has shown his realization of the error of his behavior in committing the act charged in the indictment by his cooperation, aid and assistance to the Bank and its bonding company, all of whose officers and representatives are reported to join and concur in a modification of sentence for the defendant. The Court further finds no benefit or rehabilitation is to be gained by the continued imprisonment of this defendant and that continued imprisonment might well prove detrimental. Therefore, the Court finds that the request for modification of sentence should be sustained.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the sentence of Earl C. Garman entered on the 20th day of March, 1973, be and it is hereby modified to read as follows:

IT IS ADJUDGED that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of five (5) months and eighteen (18) days.

In this modification, credit has been given for the defendant's imprisonment and custody since the 2nd day of January, 1973; and, it is the intent of this Order modifying sentence that the defendant, Earl C. Garman, be released from custody on June 20, 1973.
